Dear Chancellor Oancea:

I have been retained by Rev. Fr. Constantin Alecse and the Holy Trinity Romanian Orthodox Church. I have your letter to Constantin Alecse dated June 9, 2021, that was also mailed to the members of the Parish Council. Upon receipt of the letter, several members contacted Fr. Alecse to ask what was happening, and if they needed to personally hire a lawyer. In light of this, as well as the short deadline given in the letter, Fr. Alecse had no choice but to call for an emergency meeting of the Parish Council, where it was unanimously decided, among other things, to retain legal counsel.

The demand is too burdensome and impossible to meet. Pastor Alecse does not have the documents you requested. They are voluminous and your demand is too difficult given the limited time you provided to Fr. Constantin Alecse.

I suggest an in person meeting with you or any representative of the Church.

Would you please do me the favor of calling me so we can discuss this matter on a friendly basis. The problem is that your treatment of Fr. Alecse is getting abusive and confrontational.

I will await your call.

Thank you.
Sincerely,

ROGER JON DIAMOND
